

Family Fight Sends One to Jail

(KAIR)--An argument with a family member turns violent, leaving a vehicle with a smashed window and one woman in jail.

Arrested in connection with the alleged altercation is 37-year-old rural Atchison resident Sharon Kley.

Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie told MSC News the investigation that led to her arrest began August 12. "Deputies were called out for a disturbance at 6248 Phillips Road. They noticed there was a broken windshield on a vehicle. Later on it was found that Ms. Kley had allegedly thrown a brick at the vehicle and caused the window to break on the vehicle."

Laurie said the family member Kley was arguing with was inside the vehicle at the time the brick was allegedly thrown, but no injuries are reported.

Following the investigation into the occurrence, a warrant was issued for Kley's arrest.

She was taken into custody August 27 by the Atchison Police Department.

She faces charges related to the investigation, including aggravated assault, criminal damage to property, and disorderly conduct.

Bond for Kley was set at $15,000.
