

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=63058>

Police Seek Whereabouts of Costly Equipment

(KAIR)--A valuable piece of farm equipment is missing, stolen from an Atchison location last month.

Police Chief Mike Wilson tells MSC News an investigation is launched to find out who's responsible for stealing the Vermeer R23 twin rake. "It was reported stolen from a shed, located at the Atchison County Auction Company, in the 2100 block of Main. The theft occurred sometime between August 23 and August 30. We are following up on that case, and attempting to locate that stolen twin rake."

The missing equipment is valued at $15,000.

Anyone with information related to its whereabouts, or who was involved in the theft, is urged to contact Atchison Police.

Many Signals Communications