

Tuesday Morning Wreck Injures Three

(KAIR)--An early Tuesday morning Buchanan County, Missouri double vehicle crash sent three to the hospital.

According to the Buchanan County Sheriff's Office, it happened around 6:40 on U.S. Highway 59, near Parker Road.

It was there that a Toyota Corolla, driven by Effingham resident David Page, swerved to miss an animal in the roadway.

His southbound car crossed into the northbound lane, causing a collision with a PT Cruiser, driven by Taylor Servaes, of Rushville.

The impact caused her vehicle to rollover, and land on it's top.

Servaes and her passenger, Amanda Fitzwater, of Atchison, were transported for hospitalized treatment, as was Page.
