

Three dead in double murder-suicide in Jefferson Co

GRANTVILLE, Kan. (AP) - Authorities are investigating the deaths of three adults in Jefferson County as a double murder-suicide.

The Topeka Capital-Journal reports that the bodies were found Wednesday afternoon at a residence in rural Grantville. Sheriff Jeff Herrig says authorities sent out an alert warning people in the area of possible danger after the first two bodies were found. The victims had been shot and killed.

Herrig says the alert was canceled after officers found the body of the person who is believed to be responsible for the double homicide at the same residence. The person had died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

The investigation is ongoing. The names of those killed weren't immediately released.
