

Man arrested after domestic incident prompts manhunt

(KNZA)--A Topeka man who was the subject of a manhunt following an alleged aggravated domestic battery incident Sunday night in Holton is in custody.

The Jackson County Sheriff's Office says 30-year-old Randall Hartman, Jr. was taken into custody around 2:00 Monday morning following the incident at a residence in the 500 block of Ohio Street in Holton.

Hartman was booked into the Jackson County Jail on a charges of attempted second-degree murder, aggravated domestic battery, domestic battery, criminal damage to property and disorderly conduct. He remains held on a bond of $75,000.

The Jackson County Sheriff's Office described Hartman as dangerous and possibly armed with a rifle in a Facebook post around 10:15 Sunday night. Holton residents were advised to “ stay locked indoors” while the search was going on in the city of Holton.

Many Signals Communications