Forgery, theft, send man to jail

(KLZA)--A Falls City Police Department investigation into a forgery case led to the arrest of a Falls City man on felony charges of forgery and possession of methamphetamine.

26-year-old Jacob Lee of Falls City was arrested November 3rd, accused of writing two checks on the account of another individual. Assistant Police Chief Jamie Baker said an individual filed a complaint about the forged checks. The investigation of Lee led to the arrest of Lee for forgery and possession of methamphetamine.

Lee was booked into the Richardson County Jail.
