(KAIR)--A single vehicle, Atchison County wreck sends an Atchison County woman to the hospital.

Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie tells MSC News 18-year-old Emma Dockweiler required helicopter transport for hospitalized treatment of her injuries.

Laurie says the wreck was discovered shortly before 10:15 Wednesday night, with the pickup truck Dockweiler was driving having crashed on 214th Road, just east of Dickinson Road.

Dockweiler, who appeared to have been ejected from the truck, was found breathing but unconscious.

Laurie says it's believed the wreck happened around an hour before it was discovered.

Dockweiler was flown to the University of Kansas Hospital, in Kansas City, Kansas, for treatment of unspecified injuries.
