

Doniphan County crash kills one

(KAIR)--A Saint Joseph man is dead, killed early Tuesday afternoon in a three-vehicle Doniphan County crash.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says 22-year-old Denzel Chilcoat died in the crash that happened outside of Elwood, at K-238 and Roseport Road.

The Patrol reports that Chilcoat was westbound on Roseport Road when he failed to stop at a stop sign, causing his car to be broadsided by a dump truck, northbound on the highway, and driven by 43-year-old John Davis, Jr., of Oregon, Missouri.

The impact sent both vehicles into the southbound lane, where they were both hit by a southbound pickup truck, driven by 55-year-old Timothy Sherican, of Saint Joseph.

Sherican and Davis were both transported to Mosaic Life Care, in Saint Joseph, with possible injuries.

The Patrol reports none of the drivers were buckled up at the time of the fatal crash, which happened around 12 noon.
