

Summer crimes land woman in jail

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman goes to jail, arrested on four warrants stemming from a drug-related case dating back to last summer.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson tells MSC News 40-year-old Kelly McGuire was arrested Wednesday, taken into custody when located as part of a separate investigation. “we responded to a loud party complaint at a residence in the 1900 block Harper Drive shortly after 8PM on Wednesday. Kelly McGuire was at the residence and taken into custody on four warrants which included three failure to appear warrants and a warrant charging her with possession of methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia related to a mid July case by KHP”

Following her arrest, McGuire was booked into the Atchison County Jail, held on a bond of more than $13,000.

Many Signals Communicatons