One dead, one charged, following Friday stabbing

(KAIR)--One person is dead, and another continuing to recover, following a Friday night stabbing at a Saint Joseph, Missouri business.

KQ2-TV reports the victims were both employees of Legends Sports Bar where the attack occurred.

27-year-old Eliseo Hernandez-Sabastian is accused of stabbing and killing 38-year-old Terra Reents and injuring the other employee.

Hernandez-Sabastian is charged with second degree murder and aggravated assault in connection with the attack.

The TV station reports the altercation began with the alleged theft of liquor from behind the bar at the establishment.

The stabbing reportedly came after the employees addressed the issue.
