

One Injured in NW MO Wreck

(KLZA)-- A Fairfax, Missouri man escaped serious injury in a rollover wreck in Atchison County, Missouri Wednesday morning about three miles north of Fairfax.

The Missouri Highway Patrol report indicates 36-year-old Stuart Heck was southbound on U.S. Highway 59 when his Pontiac Grand Prix traveled off the road. The car went across the intersection of Route TT where it struck a ditch and overturned, coming to rest on its wheels.

Heck was transported by private vehicle to Community Hospital in Fairfax for treatment of what were described as minor injuries.

The Patrol says Heck was buckled up when the wreck occurred around 6:30 Wednesday morning.
