

Heroin, meth, found in traffic stop

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman is facing charges following a traffic stop that authorities say turned up a variety of illegal drugs.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson tells MSC News the arrest of 37-year-old Lisa Buchanan happened late last week. It was shortly after 9 p.m. on Friday evening. An officer stopped a vehicle in the 1900 block of South 6th, and the subsequent investigation led to the recovery of heroin and methamphetamine. The 37-year-old driver now faces drug and traffic charges."

Wilson says Buchanan was taken into custody on charges of possession of methamphetamine, possession of heroin, possession of drug paraphernalia, driving while suspended, no proof of insurance, and a Brown County warrant for contempt of court.

Following her arrest, Buchanan was booked into the Atchison County Jail.
