

Stolen car leads to three arrests

(KAIR)--A stolen vehicle catches the attention of an Atchison Police Officer on patrol, and once the vehicle is stopped, and the investigation concluded, three go to jail in connection with the theft.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson told MSC News the car, reported stolen in Lansing, was stopped early Wednesday morning. "Shortly after midnight on Wednesday morning, we had an officer check on a suspicious vehicle that stopped near a downtown business. It was determined that the 2001 Pontiac Grand Am had been stolen reported stolen in Lansing sometime the past weekend. The driver, and two occupants, were taken into custody following the traffic stop in the 500 block of South U.S. 73."

18-year-old Sidney Darrenkamp, 23-year-old Darius Fleming, and 30-year-old Kylee Walker, all of Atchison, were taken into custody for theft of a vehicle.

Wilson said although the vehicle was reported stolen in Lansing, it's owned by an Atchison resident.
