

Accused burglar returned to Atchison

(KAIR)--A man accused of burglarizing an Atchison car wash is behind bars in Atchison County.

City of Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson told MSC News 23-year-old Roger Duckett has been jailed in Brown County since his arrest in January.

That was made in connection with the December 18 burglary of the Irish Mist Car Wash, located in the 900 block of U.S. Highway 59, in Atchison. "The burglary had occurred about 6 a.m. that morning when forced entry was made into the office area of the car wash. There was a lot of damage done, to not only get into the building, but to break into a machine where some cash was taken. Within days, we had suspects developed, and within weeks we had Duckett as a suspect, and in custody in the Brown County Jail."

Duckett's arrest followed a joint investigation between Atchison Police and Brown County authorities.

Duckett, who is listed as a resident of Leona, Kansas, as well as Falls City, Nebraska, faces charges of burglary, theft, and criminal damage to property.

Duckett remains jailed in Atchison County, held on a bond of $10,000.
