

Wrecked, abandoned vehicle sparks search

(KAIR)--A vehicle is found wrecked in Atchison County, but the search continues for whoever was driving the car at the time of the crash.

According to Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, the 2003 Saturn was discovered near Potter, in the area of 210th Road, west of Rooks Road, Sunday evening.

Deputies responded to the location after the wreck was reported, and discovered the car heavily damaged.

It's believed it left the roadway and struck a tree sometime between 5:30 and 6:30 Sunday evening.

Laurie says no one was with the vehicle when the Deputies arrived, and the investigation is ongoing.

Anyone with information about the wreck should contact the Atchison County Sheriff's Office.
