

Mound City School Personnel Moves

(KLZA)-- The Mound City Board of Education accepted the resignation of 3rd Grade teacher Rachel Stanton during their April 18th meeting.

Following a closed session to discuss personnel the Board approved offering contracts to Alex Drewes to teach 3rd Grade and Taylor Standerford the teach Junior High Math.

Extra-curricular duty positions were also approved.

Brian Messer will be moving from his position as High School Football Head Coach to Head Coach of the Cross Country program. He will replace Ken Eaton in that position.

Taylor Standerford will be the new Mound City football Head Coach. Standerford will also be the assistant High School Girls Track Coach.
