Gubernatorial candidates headed to local area

(KMZA)--Two Democratic candidates for Kansas governor will be visiting Seneca next week.

Former FBI agent and security consultant Michael Tabman, of Overland Park, will be at the Home Plate Cafe for a “meet and greet” Monday afternoon at 2:00.

Then next Saturday morning, May 19th, State Senator Laura Kelly, of Topeka, will be at the Seneca Public Library at 10:00 for a “meet and greet.”

Beverages and light refreshments will be served at both events, which are being hosted by the Nemaha County Democrats. The public is invited to attend.
