KS man injured in Richardson Co motorcycle crash

(KLZA)-- A White City, Kansas man was hospitalized following a motorcycle wreck southwest of Dawson, Nebraska, Sunday morning.

A release from the Richardson County Sheriff's Office indicates 65-year-old George Newbury was eastbound on Highway 8, approximately a mile west of the junction with U.S. 75 Highway when he lost control of the 2015 Indian Roadmaster motorcycle he was riding.

The motorcycle went into the south ditch and Newbury was ejected.

He was transported by Humboldt Rescue to Community Medical Center in Falls City and later transported to a Lincoln hospital.
