

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=64960>

Forgery crimes hold Topeka woman

(KAIR)--A Topeka woman is facing Atchison County charges, arrested this week in connection with alleged financial crimes.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson tells MSC News 25-year-old Tina Funk was arrested In Topeka Wednesday.

She was taken into custody on an Atchison County District Court warrant for forgery and theft.

Wilson says an investigation was conducted by Atchison Police focusing on financial crimes committed at four Atchison businesses.

He says it's alleged that Funk used forged, stolen checks to make purchases at the four locations.

Following her arrest, Funk posted bond and was released from custody.

Many Signals Communicatons