

Democratic gubernatorial debate set in Jackson Co

(KNZA)--The Jackson County Democratic Party will host one of the final Democratic gubernatorial debates before the August 7th primary election.

It will take place Sunday afternoon, July 8th at 3:00 at the Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation Old Bingo Hall located at 16281 Q Road near Mayetta.

According to a news release, three of the leading Democratic candidates for Kansas Governor will be attending. They include former Wichita mayor Carl Brewer, Senator Laura Kelly of Topeka and former Kansas House member and Secretary of Agriculture Joshua Svaty.

Former U.S. Attorney for the district of Kansas, Barry Grissom, will serve as moderator.

The candidates will be addressing questions from members of the Jackson County Democratic party and representatives of the Prairie Band Potawatomi.

The public is encouraged to attend and participate in the event. A reception will follow.

Many Signals Communications