

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=65237>

Burn ban lifted in Doniphan County

(KNZA)--The burn ban that had been issued for Doniphan County has been lifted.

That word Monday from County Emergency Management Agency Coordinator Julie Meng.

Meng still advises county residents to use caution when burning.

The burn ban was issued last Wednesday due to the extreme dry conditions and heat at the time.

Rain fell in the county Friday night and there are more chances of rain this week.

Many Signals Communications