Congresswoman Jenkins to make local stops

(KNZA)--2nd District Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins will make several local stops Monday, August 20 as part of her annual Northeast Kansas Farm Tour.

The Kansas Republican will begin the tour at the Mark and Crystal Albers farm in rural Denton.

She will then travel to the Fred and Pam Meng dairy in rural Troy.

In the afternoon, Jenkins will stop at Ag Partners Cooperative in Hiawatha.

She will wrap up the tour with a stop at the Jay Armstrong farm in rural Muscotah, which will also include a stop at the Muscotah Mercantile.
