Burn ban issued for Doniphan Co

(KAIR)--A burn ban is now in place for Doniphan County.

That's according to an emergency alert issued Monday morning.

According to the alert, the burn ban will remain in place until further notice.

It was issued as dry conditions continue around the area and the National Weather Service calls for strong, south winds Monday, gusting up to 25 mph.

The strong winds are expected to continue into Monday night.
