

Child sex suspect waives prelim hearing

(KNZA)--A Hiawatha man facing felony charges of sexual exploitation of a child and breach of privacy has waived his preliminary hearing.

David Cattrell was bound over to Brown County District Court Wednesday for arraignment on November 18.

He was arrested in April following an investigation by the Hiawatha Police Department.

According to the criminal complaint, Cattrell is accused of the sexual exploitation of a child under the age of 18. He is also accused of using a concealed camcorder to secretly.

Cattrell remains free on a $50,000 bond.

Many Signals Communications