Thursday wreck injures one

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman required hospital treatment following a Thursday night wreck inside the Atchison city limits.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson told MSC News 51-year-old Ann Huntington was northbound on North 3rd Street when she struck a parked vehicle.

Her Jeep Grand Cherokee rolled onto its side, following the impact, and emergency crews were called to the scene.

Huntington was transported for hospitalized treatment by Atchison County EMS.

Wilson said she was cited for inattentive driving and failure to wear a seatbelt.

The wreck occurred around 10:25 Thursday night.
