Sunday wreck leaves two injured

(KAIR)--A Leavenworth woman, and her adult passenger, suffered injuries, while two young passengers went unhurt, following a single vehicle, early Sunday morning Atchison wreck.

According to a report from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, the vehicle, driven by 30-year-old Amber Hambright, left the roadway and struck a wall, located in the 2200 block of Main Street.

Hambright, and her 30-year-old passenger, were both transported by Atchison County EMS for hospital treatment.
Two four month-old children in the vehicle were examined by EMS but were not injured.
According to Wilson, unspecified charges are pending against Hambright.
The wreck happened shortly before 1:30 Sunday morning.
