

Atchison woman injured in Friday wreck

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman was injured in a two-vehicle wreck Friday morning in the city of Atchison.

According to a report from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, Robert Mullins, of Atchison, was driving a Ford Focus westbound in the 700 block of Main Street when he struck a GMC pickup truck driven by Sheldon Ivory, of Lees Summit, Missouri that entered Main Street from an alley.

A passenger in the Ford Focus, 51-year-old Tamara Mullins, was transported to the Atchison Hospital for the treatment of unspecified injuries.

The wreck was reported shortly after 7:30 Friday morning.

Many Signals Communications