Rollover wreck claims life of Pawnee City man

(KLZA)-- A single-vehicle wreck in rural Pawnee County Tuesday morning claimed the life of a Pawnee City man.

The Pawnee County Sheriff's Department, in a news release, said a grain truck driven by 35-year-old Bryce Niss was southbound, just north of the intersection of 624 Avenue and 704 Road, when a wheel dropped off the roadway, causing the vehicle to rollover.

The Sheriff's office said the wreck occurred between 9:15 and 10:15 Tuesday morning.

Pawnee County Sheriff's Office investigated the wreck with the assistance of the Nebraska State Patrol Carrier Division.

No other details have been made available at this time.
