Victims in fatal SE Neb crash identified

(AP / KLZA) -- Authorities have now released the names of the four Topeka residents who died in two-vehicle crash on Highway 75, just south of Union, Nebraska Sunday evening.

A Cass County Sheriff's Department news release says a northbound pickup truck driven by 55-year-old Ronald Dubas of LaVista, Nebraska crossed the centerline striking a southbound SUV.

Those who died at the scene were identified as 21-year-old Ashley Bracken, the driver of the SUV; 22-year-old passenger Tatiyana Wade; 4-year-old Malaysia Reece and 5-year-old Keniah Robinson. Wades 20-year-old sister, was hospitalized with serious injuries.

Dubas suffered injuries that were not considered life-threatening.
