Holton woman arrested on meth, child endangerment charges

(KNZA)--A Holton woman has been arrested on drug and child endangerment charges.

Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse said the Sheriff's Office arrested 32-year-old Kristina Hyatt Thursday night following a deputy checking on the welfare of her children.

Morse said a deputy stopped at a residence in the 300 Block of Topeka Street in Holton around 8:00 to follow up on a report of child neglect.

As a result of the investigation, the deputy placed Hyatt under arrest for possession of methamphetamine, possession of drug paraphernalia and three counts of child endangerment.

Hyatt was booked into the Jackson County Jail.
