

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=71326>

Commission fills road and bridge secretary position

(KNZA)--The Brown County Commission has filled the position of road and bridge secretary.

The Commission voted Monday to offer the position to Tami Lehmkuhl. She was among four candidates interviewed.

County Clerk Dawn Boyles told MSC News that Lehmkuhl has accepted the position. She will attend next week's Commission meeting to discuss her position, benefits and pay.

The position has been vacant since late October following the termination of Julie Liberty, who had held the position since June, 2020

Assistant County Clerk Melissa Gormley has been serving as interim road and bridge secretary.

Many Signals Communications