Ex-Seneca firefighter waives hearing in arson case

(KMZA)--A former Seneca volunteer firefighter charged with arson waived his right to a preliminary hearing this week.

According to the Nemaha County Attorney's Office, David Frehe was bound over for arraignment in Nemaha County District Court on August 5 on two counts of arson.

He is accused of setting a vacant dwelling in Seneca on fire on May 1, 2019, and a pasture in rural Nemaha County on November 4, 2020.

Frehe was charged following an investigation by the Nemaha County Sheriff's Office, Seneca Police Department and the Office of the State Fire Marshal.

He was arrested March 22, and is currently free on a $10,000 bond.
