

Vermillion woman facing multiple charges in Richardson County

(KLZA)-- A Vermillion, Kansas woman is facing several charges following her arrest about 9:00 p.m. Thursday evening in Richardson County.

Deputies conducted a motorist assist on Highway 8 and U.S. 75 Highway.

During the encounter deputies established that 39-year-old Lindsay Arent was under the influence of alcohol. Arent allegedly began to assault a deputy and resisted arrest. After deputies took control of the situation, a probable cause search was initiated. During the search deputies located open containers of alcohol, drug paraphernalia and methamphetamine.

Arent was arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol, pretest refusal; post chemical test refusal, resisting arrest, assault on an officer, obstructing a peace officer and possession of methamphetamine.

Many Signals Communications