

Two Falls City residents injured in NW MO wreck

(KNZA)--Two Falls City, Nebraska residents were injured in a two-vehicle wreck in Holt County, Missouri Thursday afternoon.

According a report from the Missouri State Highway Patrol, 43-year-old Kylie Holman was northbound on U.S. 159 about 4 miles east of Fortescue when her vehicle crossed the center line and struck a southbound semi-tractor trailer.

Holman was lifeflighted to Mosaic Life Care in St. Joseph with suspected serious injuries.

A 12-year-old girl, who was a passenger in her vehicle, was taken by private vehicle to Mosaic with suspected minor injuries.

The semi driver, 62-year-old Jesse Knapp, of Craig, Missouri, was not hurt.

The Patrol says both occupants of the Holman vehicle were buckled up at the time of the wreck, while Knapp wasn't wearing a seat belt.

The wreck was reported shortly after 4:30 Thursday afternoon.

Many Signals Communications