

Seneca woman charged in alleged home invasion

(KMZA)--A Seneca woman faces charges in an alleged home invasion robbery.

50-year-old Ginger Bass was arrested Tuesday by the Seneca Police Department on a Nemaha County warrant for aggravated robbery, aggravated burglary and battery.

Nemaha County Attorney Brad Lippert says a complaint filed in Nemaha County District Court alleges that on January 5, Bass entered a Seneca home, without authority, and while in the home, inflicted bodily injury upon the resident while taking her purse.

Lippert said the case was investigated by the Seneca Police Department, with assistance from the Kansas Highway Patrol.

Bass posted a $50,000 surety bond following her arrest and is scheduled to make her first appearance in court February 15.
