4th candidate files for Hiawatha mayor

(KNZA)--A fourth candidate has filed for the position of Hiawatha mayor, forcing a primary election.

The Brown County Clerk's Office reports Ronnie Calhoon filed Tuesday for the position currently held by Bill Collins, who is seeking re-election.

Collins is also being challenged by current City Commissioners Becky Shamburg and Brian Shefferd.

During the August 2 primary election, the top two vote getters will advance to the November 8th general election ballot.

There will also be a contested race in November for the position of Commissioner of Finance on the Hiawatha City Commission, with incumbent David Middendorf being challenged by Thomas Martin.

Candidates have until noon, June 1st to file.
