Falls City Council approves combined fee resolution

(KLZA)-- During Monday nights Falls City Council meeting, Council members approved an Annual Fee Resolution for calendar year 2023.

City Administrator Anthony Nussbaum explained the new resolution will make things easier for the city and contractors. Previously the fees, which were adopted at different points in time, were scattered throughout various ordinances. This will allow the fee schedules to be reviewed annually.

The Council also approved on final reading an ordinance requiring vacant properties to be registered with the Housing Study Committee.
