Robinson man arrested on drug charges

(KNZA)--A Brown County traffic stop Tuesday evening led to the arrest of a Robinson man on drug charges.

According to a report from Brown County Sheriff John Merchant, a sheriff's deputy initiated a traffic stop on a vehicle in the vicinity of U.S. 36 Highway and Goldfinch Road around 7:30.

Upon contact with the driver, identified as 38-year-old Andrew Armstrong, Merchant said it was discovered the vehicle's registration was expired and Armstrong's license was suspended.

He was arrested on charges of possession of methamphetamine, possession of drug paraphernalia, illegal registration and driving while suspended.

Armstrong is currently free after posting bond Wednesday.
