

Falls City School Board approves personnel moves

(KLZA) The Falls City Board of Education approved a number of resignations, new hires and reassignments when they met Monday evening.

The Board approved hiring Paul Wertenberger as the High School Industrial Technology instructor. Krista Noll as Speech-Language Pathologist and Clarissa Ross as School Psychologist.

Board members approved the reassignments of Haylee Erickson to the position of Elementary Counselor and Dr. Amanda Powell as a 6th Grade Teacher.

Resignations were accepted from Elementary School Counselor and wrestling coach Troy Nelson after 21 years of service to District 56. Laurel Harling, High School Mathematics Teacher after 35 years; Patrick Miller as High School Science Teacher and Head Boys Basketball Coach after 2 years; Alexis Bippes as Speech-Language Pathologist for two years; Donald Coolidge as High School and Middle School Industrial Tech Teacher and Track Coach following 16 years; and Elementary Teacher Emily Gist after 10 years with District 56.

The School Board approved an administrator's contract for the 2024-25 school year with Brandon Gibson to serve as South School Principal; and administrator contracts for the 2024-25 school year were approved for High School Principal Gale Dunkhas; Middle School Principal Megan Robison; North Elementary School Principal Shelly Leyden and High School Assistant Principal Ethan Sullivan.

Many Signals Communications