Gas prices on the rise nationwide

(MSC News)--Gas prices, following a recent, slight dip, are again on the rise across the nation.

The American Automobile Association, commonly known as AAA, reports that a gallon of unleaded gas, across the nation Wednesday, was selling for an average of $3.61, up 7 cents from a week ago.

Kansas gas prices on Wednesday were reported by AAA as averaging $3.26 a gallon, up 10 cents from last week.

Meanwhile, Kansas diesel fuel on Wednesday averaged $3.70 a gallon, up 3 cents from one week ago.
