

PSC students recognized at SHAPE conference

(KLZA)--Three PSC Physical and Health Education Teacher Education Majors Recognized at SHAPE Conference

During the 2024 SHAPE America Conference in Cleveland, Ohio, three Physical and Health Education Teacher Education majors from Peru State College were recognized for their outstanding presentation.

SHAPE America, the Society of Health, and Physical Educators, annually acknowledges exemplary Physical and Health Education Teacher Education Majors of the Year.

Three Peru State College, students, Alexis Wittwer from Salem, Seth Moerer from Johnson, and Emilee Burck from Beatrice, have been recognized as Majors of the Year.

Their distinguished honors include exceptional academic performance, service to the community, and willingness to exceed academic expectations.

Additionally, these students helped present the topic of implementation of unique and engaging physical activities that physical educators can incorporate into their curriculums. During the 2024 SHAPE America Conference in Cleveland, Ohio, three Physical and Health Education Teacher Education majors from Peru State College were recognized for their outstanding presentation.

SHAPE America, the Society of Health, and Physical Educators, annually acknowledges exemplary Physical and Health Education Teacher Education Majors of the Year.

Three Peru State College, students, Alexis Wittwer from Salem, Seth Moerer from Johnson, and Emilee Burck from Beatrice, have been recognized as Majors of the Year.

Their distinguished honors include exceptional academic performance, service to the community, and willingness to exceed academic expectations.

Additionally, these students helped present the topic of implementation of unique and engaging physical activities that physical educators can incorporate into their curriculums.

