Marysville Woman Changes Plea In Shooting Death

A Marysville woman charged in the shooting death of her husband changes her plea.

As part of plea agreement, Amanda " Marina" Baynton pleaded no contest Wednesday in Marshall County District Court to an amended charge of second-degree murder and aggravated assault.

District Judge John Weingart set sentencing for March 6th.

Baynton had previously pleaded " not guilty " in December to a charge of first-degree murder and a jury trial was scheduled to begin February 27th .

Baynton is charged in the June 2011 shooting death of her husband, Derek, at the couple's home.
