

Falls City, NE

Maude Campbell, 93, of Falls City, NE, passed away August 26, 2015 at Falls City. She was born September 4, 1921 at Salem, NE to the late Wesley and Mary (Malone) Roland.

On December 12, 1936 she married Leve Willey at St. Joseph, MO. They divorced in 1964. She then married Homer Campbell on January 16, 1983 at White Cloud, KS. They divorced later that same year.

Maude was raised at Salem and lived most of her life in Richardson County. She moved into Falls City in 1958 and became employed at Baker's Bakery until 1977. She became employed at Jack and Jill Grocery from 1978 until 1981 when she became a cook at the Senior Center. She retired in 1988. She was a member of Good News Assembly of God Church at Falls City.

Maude is survived by her son, Frank Willey and his wife Myrna and Garlan Willey and his wife Dora both of Falls City, nineteen grandchildren and many great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, a son, Roger Willey, a granddaughter in infancy, brothers, one in infancy and Wesley Roland, sisters, Ollie Kocher, Bessie Gentry and a daughter, Darlene Burns.

Her funeral will be held on Saturday, August 29, 2015 at 2:00 PM at Dorr and Clark Funeral Home with Reverend Tim Boatright officiating. Interment will be in Maple Cemetery.

Viewing will only be one hour prior to service time at Dorr and Clark Funeral Home.