Dan was born August 15, 1944 in Atchison, Kansas the son of Leonard and Ruth Clem Breneiser. He attended Franklin elementary school and graduated from Atchison High School in 1962. He then attended K-State University in Manhattan, Kansas.

He and Carol Lackey were united in marriage on January 2, 1965 at St. Joseph's Church.

Dan began his employment at Bill Roe's Gas Station, later worked for VanLew's Grocery then served as the produce manager for Arensberg's IGA Grocery Store and then served as a milk man for Meyer Dairy. He then established the American Exterminators business and was owner operator of that business for thirty four years until his retirement.

He was a member of St. Benedict Parish attending St. Joseph's Church and in his spare time he enjoyed repairing, fixing and painting cars; he loved spending time in the outdoors while he was on his riding mower in his yard; taking rides around the countryside but most of all he enjoyed working.

Survivors include his wife of fifty four years, Carol of the couple's home; a son, Christopher (Martina) Breneiser, Mesa, AZ; two daughters, Carrie Breneiser, Boerne, TX; Dana (Rich) Adams, Overland Park, KS; a sister, Lynnette Woolston, Atchison, KS; five granddaughters and four great grandchildren.
