

Mound City , MO

Shirley E. Nash, 70, Mound City, Missouri, died Sunday, October 18, 2020 at a St. Joseph health care center.

Born January 5, 1950 in St. Joseph, Missouri to Leonard and Marion (Wilkinson) Cook, she was a graduate of Lafayette High School and Hillyard Technical School.

She married Earl Nash on August 2, 1969. They later divorced.

Mrs. Nash had been employed in secretarial work and a cook throughout her life. She had been employed for the Cookson Hills Children's Ministries in Oklahoma and for Northwest Missouri Health Service in Mound City.

She was a member of Christian Fellowship Church and was a prayer warrior.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

(Survivors:) her daughter, Jennifer Queener and her husband, Chad of Creston, Iowa; four grandchildren Justin Queener, USMC, Allison, Rebekah and Kirby Queener all of Creston, Iowa.

Farewell Services 11:00 a.m. Thursday, Christian Fellowship Church, Mound City, Missouri under the direction of Pettijohn & Crawford Family Funeral Service. Interment New Liberty Cemetery. The Family will receive friends one hour prior to the service. Online obituary and guestbook available at www.pettijohncrawford.com