Sharon "Sherry" Marie Cooper, 74, of Horton, Kansas, passed away on Thursday, February 4, 2021 at the Mission Village Living Center in Horton, Kansas.

She was born on September 16, 1946 in Waterloo, Iowa, the daughter of Ernest and Beulah Adler Cooper. Sherry enjoyed church services, Bible readings and singing the old gospel songs. She enjoyed meeting and talking with people and especially being with her family. Her favorite past times were collecting ceramic dolls, teddy bearers and coloring. She enjoyed shopping and choosing fabrics to make matching skirts and tops. She enjoyed going shopping with family and then lunch at McDonald's. Always a burger, fries and a strawberry shake. Sherry was more closely connected to her younger sister, Peggy. They enjoyed watching T.V. and other interests. These two shared a close bond since they were very young. After Sherry entered the nursing home, Peggy visited her on a daily basis and assisted with her sister's care. Brother Larry visited often, after work.

Sherry was preceded in death by her parents, infant brother, older sister, Sandy Tidwell and her grandparents.

She is survived by her brother, Larry (Ernnie) Cooper of Horton, Kansas; sister, Peggy Cooper of Horton, Kansas; five nieces and nephews and several great nieces and nephews. Also a host of church family and many friends.

Sherry's family would like to thank the nursing staff and employees of the Mission Village Living Center and also the NEK Multi-County Hospice nurses and Chaplin for their care and concern for Sherry. Thank You to Pastor Tom and Vicki Stone and church family of the Church Of The Lord Jesus Christ for the prayers, visits and gifts of food.
