Ann was born on April 18, 1956 in Atchison, KS the daughter of Verle W. and Dorothy “Pat” (Williamson) Baumann. She graduated from Mt. St. Scholastica. Ann worked for the Union Pacific Railroad and finished her work career as a guard at the Kansas Prison System in Lansing, KS. She enjoyed all sports especially horseback riding, golf, softball, and fishing. One thrill for her was showing her horse, Prince Carlos, at the American Royal Horse Show in Kansas City, MO. Ann was an avid Kansas City Chiefs fan, and she made it known to one and all not to call her during the Chiefs games.

Ann was married to Cindy Belles and together they raised Yorkie dogs and owned and operated the Doggy Do Kennel & Kuts in Atchison, KS. Survivors include her spouse, Cindy Belles, of the home, sisters; Maureen Henzler, Topeka, KS, Kari Baumann, Washington, DC, Sue Van Gordon, Atchison, KS, Martha Burton, Holt, MO, Annette Kimbrel, Silex, MO, and Crissy Baumann, Leavenworth, KS, and brothers; Michael Baumann, Sarasota, FL, Mark Baumann, Navan, Ireland, and Tony Baumann, Leavenworth, KS, a step-son, DuWayne Belles, Topeka, KS and many nieces and nephews.
