

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=10405>

Pelini Happy With Players After Spring Break

With students back in class at Nebraska, the Huskers picked up where they left off on Monday with their fourth spring practice. The Huskers were in full pads and split the two-hour practice between the Hawks Championship Center and the outdoor practice fields.

After practice Nebraska head coach Bo Pelini spoke to the media about the practice. (play audio)

Pelini talked about his philosophy for spring practice. (play audio)

Pelini says he also likes what he is seeing on the offensive side of the ball as Offensive Coordinator Tim Beck begins his second season in that spot. (play audio)