Bobcat Baseball Splits with Central Methodist

The Bobcat Baseball team split a doubleheader with Central Methodist University.

Peru State won the opener, 3-1. Starting pitcher Bryan Duncan went five innings, giving up no runs and six hits, to earn the win.

Central Methodist came back to win the second game, 9-8

Peru State is now 16-8 on the season and 3-3 in the conference.

The Bobcats travel to Olathe, Kansas this weekend to take on Mid-America Nazarene, with doubleheaders scheduled both Friday and Saturday.
