

Hagemann wins Big 10 Pitching Honor

Senior right-hander Ashley Hagemann picked up her second weekly award of the season, as she was named the Big Ten co-Pitcher of the Week on Monday. Hagemann was also selected as the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week on March 19.

Hagemann was honored after an outstanding performance in Nebraska's three-game sweep of Illinois last weekend. She appeared in all three games, posting a 2-0 record with a 0.47 ERA, allowing only one run and just three hits in 15 innings while striking out 16.

Hagemann threw her first career no-hitter in the series opener, striking out 11 and allowing only a pair of walks. Her performance marked the first no-hitter by a Husker since 2008. Hagemann then tossed 2 innings of scoreless relief in game two, before firing a two-hitter in the finale. On the weekend, Hagemann held Illinois to a .063 batting average and did not allow a hit in 13 of the 15 innings she pitched.

Hagemann and her Husker teammates close out a four-game homestand on Wednesday at 6 p.m. against Creighton.
